

Front of postcard

- On this side, you will create some kind of nice picture to help explain your summer! The picture must match your summer.

or find one...your choice!

Fill the whole card! No white space!

Back of postcard

Dear Students,

Your message should begin here.
Write complete sentences and use your best punctuation, capitalization, and spelling.

Tell me what you did over the summer. If your summer was not as great as you hoped that it would be, what do you wish you could've done? Try to include powerful verbs and vivid descriptions of your activities,

Also, try to put your personality into your writing. This trait is called "voice," which makes your writing unique and interesting, and fun to read!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Montgomery
